Down the Rabbit Hole

Alice was bored. She was sitting in the park with her sister who was reading a history book to her.

"I don't like the book. It has no pictures. In my world, all the books would have pictures in them."

"In your world? It's a nonsense. There is only one world," said her sister.

"Nonsense. That's the right word. It makes sense to me," thought Alice and she walked to a nearby lake.

Suddenly, she saw a white rabbit. The rabbit took out a watch out of its pocket, said: "Oh, dear. I'm late," and jumped into a rabbit hole.

Dolů králičí norou

Alenka se nudila. Seděla v parku se svou sestrou, která jí četla dějepisnou knížku.

"Mně se ta knížka nelíbí. Nejsou vní žádné obrázky. V mém světě by všechny knihy byly s obrázky."

"V tvém světě? To je nesmysl. Existuje jen jeden svět," řekla sestra.

"Nesmysl. To je to správné slovo. To mi dává smysl," pomyslela si Alenka a šla k blízkému jezírku.

Náhle uviděla bílého králíka. Králík vytáhl zkapsy hodinky a řekl: "Jémine. Opozdil jsem se!" A skočil do králičí nory.

Alice was curious and she jumped into the hole too.

Alice was c_{W_1} . She started falling do_{W_1} the ho_k

It was very deep. When she was falling, she saw a lamp and a cupboard and pictures on the walls and a mirror and a table. "Oh, I am in someone's room. Maybe I will get to Australia through the Earth," Alice thought.

She fell on the floor, but she immediately jumped up because she could see the rabbit hopping down a long passage. There were many doors in the passage, but when Alice got to them, all of them were locked and the rabbit was Alenka byla zvědavá a skočila do nory také.

Začala padat dole

Nora byla velmi hluboká. Když Alenka padala, uviděla lampu a příborník a obrázky na stěnách a zrcadlo a stůl. "Jé, jsem vněčím pokoji. Možná se skrz Zemi dostanu do Austrálie," pomyslela si.

Dopadla na podlahu, ale hned vyskočila, protože zahlédla králíka, jak hopká dlouhou chodbou. V chodbě byla spousta dveří, ale když se k nim Alenka dostala, všechny byly zamčené a králík byl pryč.

chapter 1

"What shall I do?" She looked around and she saw a key on the table. It fit into one door, but the door was so small, only a mouse would get through. Alice saw a little bottle on the table. It said "DRINK ME". Alice drank it and she started to get smaller and smaller.

Now she could easily walk through the door, BUT it was locked and the key was still on the table. The table was now as big as a house and Alice couldn't climb up its legs. She started crying.

Then she saw a little box. Inside was a cake which said EAT ME! Alice ate it and waited what would happen.

"Co mám dělat?" Rozhlédla se kolem a uviděla na stole klíč. Pasoval do jedněch dveří, ale ty dveře byly tak malé, že by se jimi protáhla jen myš. Alenka uviděla na stole malou lahvičku. Stálo na ní: "VYPIJ MĚ." Alenka se z ní napila a začala se zmenšovat.

Teď mohla snadno dveřmi projít, ALE dveře byly zamčené a klíč byl stále na stole. Stůl byl teď velký jako dům a Alenka nedokázala po jeho nohách vyšplhat. Začala plakat.

Pak uviděla krabičku. Uvnitř byl koláč, na kterém bylo napsáno: "SNĚZ MĚ!" Alenka ho snědla a čekala, co se stane.

Spojte obrázky s anglickými názvy nábytku (pozor, mají zpřeházená písmena). Jaké vyjde tajné slovo?

RICAH ROFOL BEALT WOWDIN

RODO PLAM GLINICE ROBADUPC WLAL RORIMR

10. CUPBOARD = WONDERLAND
6. MIRROR, 7. FLOOR, 3. CHLING, 4. DOOR, 5. TABLE,
T. WALL, 2. FLOOR, 3. CEILING, 4. DOOR, 5. TABLE,

Short adjectives

small

smaller

the smallest

Long adjectives

expensive

more expensive

the most expensive

Who is taller?

Both are the same.